I applaud the action taken by the County Board of Supervisors to seek a declaration of a state of emergency. Here is an article from LA Times that describes in greater detail what might be possible

Please forward to your colleagues and team members.

Subject: Petition for State Declaration of Homelessness Emergency and June 16 Community Web Meeting

Importance: High

Dear Partner,

Today, the Board of Supervisors unanimously voted to ask the California Assembly and Senate to urge the Governor to declare a state of emergency because of California's homeless crisis. Board motion is attached.

Please join this growing effort today by signing a petition urging Governor Jerry Brown to take this essential action. Click HERE to sign the petition. Spread the word about this urgent effort.

For an update on the County's multi-pronged State advocacy effort to combat homelessness, the community is invited to participate in a Community Web Meeting on Thursday, June 16:

1. Date/time: June 16 from 10am – 11am
2. Speakers: One or more members of the Board of Supervisors and Phil Ansell, Director, Homeless Initiative of LA County

3. Register at <https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/5722539483904679684>
